The Pastor Writes -----

I AM PLEASED TO LET YOU KNOW THAT TAYLOR IS BACK AT HOME from her mission trip to Africa. Thank all of you for your prayers. I am so proud to be a part of a praying church and you are all a joy to my heart. She will be sharing with her church family on Sunday morning August 17th.

LAST SUNDAY MORNING WAS ONE OF THOSE SUNDAYS THAT MAKES you glad that you are a Christian. It was wonderful to see such a large crowd for worship and as seven of our young people were baptized we could sense the presence of the Lord in this place. I want to say a very special thanks to Bro. Mark and Vicki for their ministry. There is no doubt in my mind that he has a unique spiritual gift for relating to young people in a way that makes them want to become Christians. Vicki is so supportive of his work and they are a blessing to this church.

THE TRUTH IS THAT SUMMER FOR OUR CHILDREN IS COMING TO an end in the next couple of weeks. It seems inevitable that in the last two weeks of summer we have very low attendance. That is why I want to encourage all of the church family to make every effort to be faithful in the next few weeks. If you are in town, please make every effort to be in worship. I want to add to that our continued faithfulness in giving is vital to the ongoing ministry of this church.

I MENTION THE GIVING BECAUSE WE JUST FACED A VERY LARGE bill for some plumbing connected to the family life center. For several years we have managed to keep it flowing but that finally ended. It took a major project to make the kitchen usable again. The cost was around $2,800 and we really need some assistance to get the money paid back to the budget. Anything you can give, small or great, will be appreciated. Just mark your designated gift "Kitchen" and it will go directly to pay it back.

SOMETHING TO SMILE ABOUT: THREE SISTERS AGES 92, 94 and 96 live in a house together. One night the 96 year old draws a bath, puts her foot in the tub and pauses. She yells down the stairs, "Was I getting in or out of the bath?" The 94 year old yells back, "I don't know, I'll come up and see." She starts up the stairs and pauses, then she yells, "Was I going up the stairs or coming down?" The 92 year old was sitting at the kitchen table having a cup of tea, listening to her sisters and shaking her head. She says, "I sure hope I never get that forgetful." She knocks on wood for good measure. Then she yells, "I'll come up and help both of you as soon as I see who's at the door!"

Hope to see you Sunday,

Bro. Rick
