The Pastor Writes -----

GOD IS SO GOOD TO US AND TO THINK THAT HE gave us such a wonderful, cool, sunshine morning to enjoy worship. I thank God that you came here to worship this morning. So, let's take a look at the upcoming events here at Procter.

A PERSONAL NOTE TO BEGIN WITH. CAREFULLY READ this paragraph and it will relieve you from having to ask questions. I have made a hard deal with Lynn concerning my beard. As you know, for years I have grown a beard for the upcoming hunting season. I did this until 2010 and for practical reasons decided to give it up. Well, it is hunting season and she has agreed to let me grow it with one very firm exception. I have to shave it off for Betsy's wedding. I can do that. Now you don't have to ask that question, "Are you growing your beard?" By going public with this agreement she will be hard pressed to change her mind. Right?

TODAY I CONTINUE WITH A SERIES OF MESSAGES of personal encounters with Christ during His earthly ministry. Last week we looked at the Lord's encounter with Zacchaeus, the tax collector. Today we will be studying the healing power of Christ in John 4:46-54 where a father's faith is put to the test.

THANK YOU FOR BEING IN GOD'S HOUSE TODAY and I hope you have a blessing beyond measure.

Joyfully your pastor,

Bro. Rick

Bro. Rick and Lynn, along with the Procter family, wish to extend their heartfelt sympathy to Mavis Trieble and family in the death of her husband, Harry.

How Do You Like Your Coffee?

You probably don't prepare lukewarm coffee. Don't let your prayer life be lukewarm either. We will be doing the Bible Study, War Room. Through this Bible study, we will be called to evaluate our spiritual life and growth, to uncover our true character, to trust in the God of grace, to declare victory over our true Enemy, and to find our identity in our Savior. This study will serve as a reminder that prayer really is a powerful weapon. So...how do you like your coffee?

We will meet every SECOND Thursday at 6 o'clock. See you there.
